Goods are booked under section.... (10 or 11) of the carriage by Road Act-2007 (Client Risk / Carrier's Risk)

TERMS & CONDITIONS FOR TRANSPORTATION:

Book my consignment with your carrier covering transit risk under Sec. 10 or 11 of the Carriage by Road Act, 2007 and I am ready to pay Freight on Value (FOV) i.e. Transit Risk Coverage Charges of Goods Value as per terms and conditions mentioned below:

- In the event of arising a case of claim for any reason, the payment of compensation will be restricted to the amount equivalent to the value declared by the consignor in the Article list.
- The consignor should indicate the value of his/her all old and used items, in detail at the time of packing in the Article List after due application of his/her mind and the cost/value so declared should be reasonable as far as possible since the declared value alone would be taken into account at the time of deciding the claim for compensation.
- If single piece has been broken out of a set, the payment will be made proportionately of the value of such set declared at the time of packing and as noted in the article list computing the cost of single piece and the claim of replacement of complete set will not be entertained. However, in case of broken item being in addition to the proportionate cost of broken piece, 15% more could be paid in case of exceptional item only to compensate the loss.
- In case of any damage of furniture item if it is repairable, the damage would be got repaired by the carpenter of the company and no claim for replacement of the damaged furniture/wooden item will be entertained.
- The carrier will not be responsible for payment of any compensation in respect of electronic articles if not shown in working condition at the time of packing. The carrier would be liable for repair of damaged part to make the same in working condition or the cost of damaged parts would be paid proportionately after computing the value of damaged set's part restricting the declared value of particular item.
- Similarly, in case of other items, the amount of compensation would be decided on proportionate basis of the declared value of other items or alternatively the damaged portion would get repaired.
- Although due care would be taken to get the damages rectified/repaired expeditiously yet due to certain unforeseen circumstances, if there is delay in getting the damage repaired, no compensation will be paid for such delay or time gap between the period of damage and its repair.
- Although due precaution will be taken to ensure quick transportation and timely delivery of the materials at the destination but due to certain unforeseen circumstances or due to certain natural calamities or due to certain sudden road hazardous taking place in transit causing delay in delivery of the material, in such circumstances, no claim for any compensation will be entertained.
- No claim for compensation will be entertained for mental agony, mental tension or harassment due to unintentional delay in delivery of the material at the destination.
- The carrier will not be liable in any manner whatsoever for the damages or for any defects noticed in any item, if the consignor/consignee has arranged the unloading and unpacking of the transported material at his/her own.
- If the consignor/consignee merely puts his/her signature on "Goods Receiving" Copy showing acknowledgment of goods without giving any remark about the status of the materials, it would be deemed that the transported materials were delivered in o.k./good condition.
- The carrier will look into the claim of the consignor/consignee in respect of only those items about which there would be specific damaged remark mentioned in the Proof of Delivery (POD).
- No complaint made subsequently or at a later stage will be entertained about any additional item having being found damaged or any other type of defect found to have developed or noticed subsequently either after issue of o.k. receipt or after giving remarks about certain material received in damaged condition.
- A claim for compensation for damages of material of any nature would be entertained either for repair or for cash payment towards compensation only after receipt of freight charges in full and receipt of written complaint separately soon after unloading but in any case not later than 3 days of unloading.
- The carrier will not be liable to entertain claim of compensation in respect of any item which is not specifically mentioned in the Article List and its value has been declared at the time of packing of the materials.
- The carrier will not accept flowerpots (Clay) for transportation and if at all accepted as a good gesture on the request or on being insisted upon by its customer however it won't take guarantee or be liable for its safe delivery at the destination.
- The Consignor hereby expressly declares that the above particulars furnished by him or his/her agent are correct. No prohibited articles/goods are included and he/she is aware of Terms & Conditions of the carrier.
- If party covers his/her risk directly, through some Insurance company, then the transit risk coverage by carrier will end and will not be liable to entertain any compensation claim.
- The consignor or his/her agent declares that after understanding the meaning of these clauses as above, signed this Goods Forwarding Note.
